

Joseph Adler, PT, DPT CCS

Joe Adler PT, DPT CCS received his MS PT from Beaver College in 1993, Transitional DPT from Arcadia University in 2008 and APTA Board certification as Clinical Specialist in Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Physical Therapy in 2006. His clinical expertise is treatment of patients with critical illness, especially after cardiothoracic surgery. Joe has co-coordinated the student clinical program at The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania for over 10 years and coordinates the Acute Care Internship Program. He is active in our national organization (APTA) as Program Chair for the Cardiovascular and Pulmonary section. He has published a systematic review of Early Mobility in the Intensive Care Unit , written a book chapter on Acute Care Orthopedics and continues as adjunct faculty at Arcadia University.

Team Lead Physical Therapist

Locations

Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania